NSWMA Safety Seminar

Thursday, February 23, 2012

This comprehensive safety training seminar by industry experts will provide important information on improving safety and reducing accidents and injuries to your workers. You will also learn what OSHA and DOT are focusing on, the role of ANSI standards, and participate in a roundtable where attendees can share success stories.

NSWMA is focused on safety.

This seminar can help your company reduce accidents and insurance costs, and improve its OSHA compliance.

You can't afford to miss it!
